It was not passed for the simple reason that the bill was "honest." By one of those mysterious and un-seen acts of political legerdemain the bill has been made to vanish into space, never again to return to its sponsors and promoters. A most diligent and persistent search was made to locate its whereabouts, but each investigation was a "love's labor lost." The bill had been lost or captured, no one could tell which, for it had not encountered an opposition such as would have caused it to be "killed." It was one of those instances in which, amid the excitement and confusion of the final bustle and hurry the bill disappeared, and, as was no explanation, the entry therefore was written simply as "missing." At all events the Legislature failed to provide for the ex-penses of the commission or for the payment of Maryland's necessary quota required to put the suggestion of the commission into actual effect.

That left the future operations on Maryland's part not simply crippled, but actually crushed. The commission has already gone as far as it can on the wings of a mere prospective pay. It has reached that point now where something more tangible than mere hopes of payment is essential. The controversy is in that stage of development in which money is needed for its further progress, and, since that has been denied, the Maryland side of the negotiations may be a perfectivally and the carrying out of this program it was believed that Spain would gram it was believed that Spain would be a program it was believed that Spain would be a program it was believed that Spain would be a program it was believed that Spain would be a program it was believed to be conceded—the abandonment of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Ladrones and the establishment of a commission to pass upon questions relating to the program it was believed to be conceded—the abandonment of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Ladrones and the establishment of a commission to pass upon questions relating to the program in the terms. seem to have been effectually brought to a halt.

The commission contemplates no more meetings, because it realizes that nothing practicable or tangible can be accomplished. Mr. Hodson himself feels keenly the humiliating position to which this State has been reduced. It is an illustration, so it is It is an illustration, so it is claimed, of where the higher plane of Maryland's honor has been sacrificed in or that certain persons might wreak some political vengence upon their alleged coterie of adversaries. The disappearance of the bill is accredited to a carefully conspired in-trigue, formulated and executed to prevent a certain politician from utilizing its enactment for his own advantage. At all events, Maryland, after having engaged with Virginia for the amicable settlement of an aggravating dispute, has been de-prived of the ability to fulfill her ob

No One Not in Accord With President's Views as to the Disposition of the Philippines Will Be Appointed-Our Govdicated in the Answer to the Spanish

Washington, Aug. 9 .- The reply of the Spanish government to the peace conditions laid down by the United States was received by the French ambassador, M. Cambon, yesterday afternoon. The reply came in sections, the dispatch first received giving only the opening passages of the Spanish reply. A few minutes later another dispatch brought a second section, and these kept coming uninterruptedly by a procession of messengers until seven sections of the Spanish reply had been received at 4 o'clock, when the last part was still to arrive. In the meantime the cipher experts were at worl and by 4:30 o'clock they were abreast of all that portion of the reply received up to that time, and there was a lull of some time, pending the arrival of the oncluding portions.

Pending the receipt of the complete reply no steps were taken to fix a time for a conference with the president, as the time for that depends largely upor some of the features of the reply, and also upon the explicit instructions con cerning the delivery of the answer which usually accompanies a docu ment of this solemn character. Neither at the White House nor at the state department was there any official know ledge that the reply had reached Wash ngton, and the usual office hours close with no appointment made for a con

Pending the official delivery of the answer speculation was rife as to its ontents. There was little or no further doubt that the length of the reply meant that Spain had not given a simple and direct affirmative to the American conditions. It was evident was accompanied by extended discussion and probably by conditions. This caused considerable apprehension in official circles here, for while it was felt last week that Spain would surely yield in every particular, it began to in Paris. be felt that possibly there might be another period of discussion and pos-sibly an indirect attempt to open up a liplomatic exchange on the nature of Late in the afternoon the president received an indirect intimation that the Spanish reply had come to the French embassy. The presence of a large British squadron near Gibraltar is clear evidence of an understanding, if not an alliance, between England and the United States." Desire For Generosity.

Paris, Aug. 9.-The Temps says it is to be hoped the noble resignation of Spain will touch the heart of President McKinley and that he will consider it honorable to show that if the United States is strong, it is great and magnanimous enough to spare the vanquished enemy, not to abuse its victory and to desire by the generosity of its acts to zalez. make the treaty with the people they have learned to respect on the battlefield a veritable pact friendship. It is certain, The Temps adds, that Spain will be rewarded for her wisdom. Freed from the Cuban incubus, she will regain energy and vitality and march with joyful steps towards a calm and prosperous future.

Negotiations May Occur in Paris. London, Aug. 9.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: "The promptitude with which the Spanish cabinet accepted the terms, on receipt of the American explanations, shows that it does not desire to waste time in dilatory procedure.
